

The public airwaves are free of charge. Companies using them are obligated by law to serve the public interest. Airing the anti Kerry film Stolen Honor as a news feature is a lie and shouldn't be tolerated by the FCC.